

Referral from the clinic to the hospital

A primary care clinic in Ontario refers patients to the regional hospital. Each lane is the team that owns the step.

The clinic office follows up when the hospital has not offered a date within ten working days.