

Blockquotes, alerts & rules

A quoted block with bold and code.

It flows across lines like a paragraph, and it can hold other blocks:

- a list item
- another one

A quote inside the quote, for a reply to a reply.

Note

Useful context the reader should know.

Tip

A shortcut worth knowing: press `Ctrl+F` in the PDF viewer to search the whole document.

Important

The one thing to remember. An alert can hold several paragraphs.

And a list:

1. first
2. second

Warning

Mind the gap between the platform and the train.

Caution

High voltage behind this panel. Disconnect the supply before opening it.

Three rules, three spellings: ---,  and ____ all draw the same line.
